

“FISKEAUX” BIO

Three beautiful sisters Hannah 20, Priscilla 19 and Faith 18 comprise the group FISKEAUX (pronounced Fisco). Their pure and passionate acapella harmony springs forth from who they are. Raised on the mission field in ministry with the Eskimos, they recently gained notoriety in state and national vocal competitions. It was last year 2006 when in training, Hannah and Priscilla along with Mark Jr., their 16-year-old brother, were in a very serious car accident. Hannah, who's broken back threatened paralysis from the waist down, walked out of the hospital 3 weeks later. Priscilla, killed on impact, was brought back to life when Mark Jr. Spoke "In Jesus' name, get up!" Mark Jr. is their lead guitarist.

These multifaceted healing experiences and their godly upbringing have brought a depth of passion in the Spirit. "FISKEAUX" is now launching their musical career.
